About GATE

GATE is an international organization working on gender identity, gender expressions and sex characteristics. It was founded in 2009, and it is registered in New York (USA). GATE programmatic work is organized around four main areas: Depathologization, HIV, Movement Building and UN, with a cross-cutting emphasis on socio-economic justice.

Background

Transgender and intersex organizations have limited access to funding and the scarce funding available is highly competitive. Securing funding requires capacity in developing strong, evidence-based proposals and concept notes that respond to the needs of the communities. This project is in response to requests from transgender and intersex activists and organizations for capacity building in the area of resource mobilization, particularly proposal writing, monitoring and reporting.

Scope of Work

Consultant will develop a curriculum and virtual training guide on proposal and concept note development taking into consideration realities, needs and specificities of the transgender and intersex communities.

Requirements

- In-depth understanding of transgender and intersex issues.
- Knowledge of fiscal landscape of transgender and intersex communities.
- Ability to work remotely in an independent, responsible and timely way.
- Experience in developing and delivering online trainings.
- Knowledge on resource mobilization.

Selection Process

GATE will select the consultant based on proposals from interested applicants.
